Anglo-Paris Basin - heatflow

Heatflow in mW/m² is shown on the map. The heatflow values range from blue (low heatflow) to red (high heatflow). The map covers a region from 356° to 0° longitude and from 46° to 52° latitude. The color gradient indicates the intensity of heatflow, with higher values towards the red end of the spectrum and lower values towards the blue end.